District of New Jersey

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Case Number 2:07-CR-167-JLL-01

JAKE J. BRAHM

Defendant.

JUDGMENT IN A CRIMINAL CASE
(For Offenses Committed On or After November 1, 1987)

The defendant, JAKE J. BRAHM, was represented by WALTER A. LESNEVICH, ESQ..

The defendant pled guilty to count(s) ONE of the INDICTMENT on FEBRUARY 28, 2008. Accordingly, the court has adjudicated that the defendant is guilty of the following offense(s):

Title & Section	Nature of Offense	Date of Offense	Count Number(s)
18 U.S.C. § 1038(a)	False information and hoaxes	09/2006 - 10/20/2006	ONE

As pronounced on JUNE 5, 2008, the defendant is sentenced as provided in pages 2 through 5 of this Judgment. The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, for count(s) ONE, which shall be due immediately. Said special assessment shall be made payable to the Clerk, U.S. District Court.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence, or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments imposed by this Judgment are fully paid. If ordered to pay restitution, the defendant shall notify the court and United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances.

Signed this the 6th day of JUNE, 2008.

JOSE L. LINARES

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 2 years.

Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (on the next page).

Based on information presented, the defendant is excused from the mandatory drug testing provision, however, may be requested to submit to drug testing during the period of supervision if the probation officer determines a risk of substance abuse.

If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release and shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant is to be confined to his residence for a period of 6 months commencing at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. The defendant shall permit the probation officer access to the residence at all times and maintain a telephone at the residence without any custom services or portable, cordless equipment. The defendant shall comply with any other specific conditions of home confinement as the probation officer requires. The defendant shall pay the costs of electronic monitoring, specifically $3.18 per day.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon the request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant shall participate in a mental health program for evaluation and/or treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged and with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to an initial inspection by the probation office, and to any unannounced examinations during supervision, of the defendant's computer equipment. The defendant shall allow the installation on the defendant's computer of any hardware or software systems which monitor computer use. The defendant shall abide by the standard conditions of computer monitoring that have been adopted by this court.
